

Grant Writing Workshop

February 26, 2018

Time: 9:30 am to 4:30 pm CST

North Battleford, SK

Workshop Facilitator: Coralie Bueckert of Warman. Coralie has 15 plus years working in the Recreation Sector. Her experiences with the grant writing process includes: applying; adjudicating at community, regional and provincial levels; facilitating of grant/proposal writing to community groups and at post secondary institutions.

Cost: Free!

Location: Battleford Agency Tribal Council, 971 – 104th Street, North Battleford

One vehicle per community (within Rivers West District with an active membership) will be reimbursed for mileage. Lunch provided.

Learning Outcomes

Understand the proposal writing process

Understand the development of a program plan

Understand the program planning process relates to the proposal writing process

Awareness necessary to justify the need for funding

Knowledge and skill needed to develop a proposed balanced budget

Understand of why it is necessary to plan the program evaluation into your funding application

Understand how to plan for the follow-up reporting once the event is finished.

For more information or to register contact:

Bonnie Mills Midgley,
Community Development
Coordinator

Call: 306-248-3518

Call/Text: 306-344-7473

rwdsr.admin@sasktel.net

Registration deadline:
February 19, 2018