To help you find the funding you need, we've compiled over 200 unique opportunities specific to Sport, Culture and Recreation into our 2023-24 Grants and Funding Guide.

This guide is a great starting point for both professionals and volunteers working within our industry looking for grants to support projects, programs or initiatives:

Green Jobs Initiative 2024 - Call for Applications

The Canadian Parks and Recreation Association (CPRA) are now accepting grant applications for their Green Jobs Initiative, a program that empowers youth by creating meaningful job placements.

The program provides direct financial support (via 50% wage subsidies) to local governments (municipalities, Indigenous communities, etc.) and other sector organizations, to support nearly 140 jobs that focus on green career-related activities.

By empowering youth with job opportunities and fostering environmental stewardship, we contribute to their personal growth, the advancement of community priorities, and creating a sustainable future for our communities and our planet.

All 2024 applications are due Friday, February 16, 2024, at 5:00 p.m. EST.

To learn more about the program, please visit greenjobsinitiative.ca

December 2023 Update:

Seasons greetings to all. Can you believe it is now December and no sight of snow?!

December is turning out to be a busy festive month packed full with Christmas arts and crafts, the wind up of Judo and Christmas parties!

Arts and Crafts club has begun and the first projects the students have made are Christmas decorations to take home. There are 20 students from each school enrolled.

Connaught Judo program will be coming to an end, as Sensei Bullerwell is leaving teaching and taking a new career path. We thank Lloyd Bullerwell for his years of instructing the students and wish him all the best in his new career.

I hope you all have a great Holiday Season with much love, laughter and joy.
See you in the New Year!
